Containing the freshest Advices Foreign and Domestick.

FROM JULY 5. TO JULY 12. 1739.

DUBLIN, April 3.

WE hear from the County of Fermanagh, that one Mr. Maguire, a Roman Catholic Gentleman, of near 800 l. per annum, who lived at Tempo in that County, and who had kept a Country Girl, as a Mistress, for some Time, who upon some little falling out, concerted Measures with a Female Doctor for poisoning him, and accordingly she gave him four Pills, two of which he took, and soon after began to vomit Blood, and in a few Hours died in a miserable Condition, his Eyes being burst in his Head, and part of his Skin peel'd off. We hear, the Doctor was taken up and sent to Enniskilling Goal, where she had taken one of her own Pills, and is since dead; chusing rather to die by her own Hand, than the Hangman's.

NORTHAMPTON, April 9. On Wednesday last, between the Hours of Eight and Ten in the Evening, was committed the most inhuman and barbarous Murder and Robbery that has been known in the Memory of Man, on Richard Bromley, Butcher, of Weedon, in his Return from Daventry Market, in the High-Street Road, within a Quarter of a Mile of his own House, by some Ruffians, who, as is supposed, having first knock'd him off his Horse, fractur'd his Skull, cut his Head almost off, cut and stabb'd him in the Body in 16 Places, out of which ten were declar'd by the Surgeons to be mortal; his Hands and Face were cut in a miserable Manner, as we suppose, by endeavouring to save his Throat. 'Tis believ'd to be done by some neighbouring Villians that knew him, and that he was to have received a considerable Sum of Money, as well for a Note he had with him of 20 l. to be paid that Day in Daventry, besides his Market Money, which was upwards of 6 l. and in the Hurry to come at the Money, they cut off with his Pocket a Part of his Thigh. The Villains afterwards fasten'd his Horse to a Hook near his own House.

LONDON, April 14. Letters from Dantzick say, that it is generally reported that the Marriage of the Princess Anne of Mecklenbourg, will be declared at Petersburg on the Anniversary of the Emperors of Russia's Coronation.

Our Advices from Vienna are, that a Body of 3000 Turks have attacked a Post on the Frontiers of Croatia, and defeated 200 Imperialists that defended it. They write from Temeswar, that the Turks give out that their Design is to attack that Town, for which Purpose they are getting together a considerable Train of Artillery.

They write from Paris, that the King of France's Journey to Compeign is fix'd for the 8th of June; that his most Christian Majesty is to stay there till the 7th of August; and that they are building a Fort near that Place, which is to be besieged by Land and Water, for the Dauphin's Instruction in the Art of War.

April 20. We hear from Warsaw, that 30,000 Turks are arrived between Choczim and Bender, and that the Sultan of Bialogrod has given Orders to set at Liberty all the Polish Subjects, taken by the Tartars in the last Irruption they made into Poland.

LONDON, April 23. On Saturday last the Corpse of the Hon. Edward Carteret, Esq; Post-master General, in a Lead and Velvet Coffin, was carried from his House in the General Post Office in Lombard-street, in a Hearse drawn by Six Horses, richly equippt with Funeral Escutcheons, &c. attended by the Hon. Mr. Clutterbuck and the Hon. Admiral Cavendish, his Son-in-law, as Chief Mourners, assisted by four Gentlemen belonging to the Office in three Mourning Coaches and six, and met on the Road near Rumford by a great many of his Tenants and Travellers on Horseback, who rid in Procession before the Hearse Two and Two in Hatbands and Gloves, &c. to Horn-Church in Essex, and buried in a Vault in the Chancel with the Lady Sudbury, his late Wife: The Funeral was conducted with the greatest Order and Decency, the Populace very numerous, yet not offering the least Disturbance, or meddling with any of the Escutcheons that were on the Hearse, till the Body was taken out, and the Hearse drawn away.

April 26. His Grace the Duke of Marlborough's Regiment of Foot is order'd home from the Leeward Islands, and is to be replac'd by another Regiment from Ireland.

Yesterday the Dissenters miscarried in their new Attempt for a Repeal of the Test and Corporation Acts.

It is said, That the Alliance between France, Spain, the Emperor, Sardinia, the King of the Two Sicilies, and a Northern Power, is just concluded.

On Thursday a General Council was held at St. James's on the present Posture of Affairs.

Monday last William Shippen, Esq; entertained a great Number of the Members of the House of Commons, at his House in Norfolk-street in the Strand.

As did in the next Day Watkin Williams Wynne, Esq; at his House in Downing-street, Westminster.

William Pulteney, Esq; Sir William Wyndham, Bart. and other of the Members, design to entertain likewise in their Turn.

A Letter from Venice, March 25.

"According to some private Letters from Constantinople the Marquess de Villeneuve the French Ambassador there, has complain'd in a very serious Manner of the little Success he has met with in his Endeavours to bring about a Peace between the Emperor, Russia and the Grand Signor; upon which the Grand Vizier declar'd to his Excellency, "That since the last Conditions of Peace offer'd by the Grand Signor had been rejected, his Highness would condescend to make new Propositions; that he therefore entirely dropt the Demand he had made of the Imperial Walachia, and part of Servia; and consented at the same Time either to restore Orsova to the Emperor, or to raze its Fortifications, upon Condition that his Imperial Majesty shall engage himself to restore to the Porte Temeswar, and all that Part of the Bannat which reaches from the River Temes to the Frontiers of Walachia, including the Towns or Posts of Werschnitza, Vipalanka, Meadia and Cornia, and in general all the Dependencies of the Bannat of Temeswar; that his Highness nevertheless excepts Caransebes, which the Emperor may fortify in order to cover the Frontiers of Transylvania, and that the Grand Signor will cede to his Imperial Majesty a certain Territory in Turkish Walachia, which lies very convenient to be annex'd either to Transylvania or or Imperial Walachia. The Grand Vizir, in making these new Propositions, held a Chart in his Hand, wherein he shew'd to the Marquis de Villeneuve the District which his Highness demands, and the Territory in Turkish Walachia he consents to cede to the Emperor; at the same time assuring his Excellency that his Master would not, even after the Loss of a Battle, make the least Alteration in those Conditions. The Vizir made no Mystery of the Plan of Operations which he is to execute this Campaign; but told him plainly that he would march directly to Belgrade with the greatest Part of his Army, in order to undertake the Siege of that Town.

Extract of a Letter from Rome, April 4.

"The Chevalier de St. George, accompanied by his eldest Son, had another Audience of the Pope yesterday, and discours'd a considerable Time with the Holy Father. The frequent Conferences held at the Chevalier's, the several Audiences he has had of the Pope of late, and several other Circumstances which draw the Attention of the Publick, give room to suspect that he is taken up with some important Affair concerning his own Interests; and his Partizans carry their Conjectures very far on that Head. The Chevalier seems very desirous that the Cardinal de Tencin, whom he recommended to the Purple, may be sent hither with the Character of Ambassador from the King of France."

MADRID, April 21. This Court being inform'd of the repeated Refusal that the British South-Sea Company has made of paying the 68000*l.* which has been demanded of it, pursuant to the Declaration of the Marquis de la Quadra, is determin'd to persist in that Declaration; and in case the Company still continues to deny the Payment of that Sum, to dispose of the Assiento Contract to whomsoever it shall think fit. A Project is talk'd of for augmenting the Maritime Forces in such manner, as to be able to put to Sea sixty Men of War whenever the Court shall think proper.

LONDON, May 1. We hear from Vienna, that in the King of Spain's Accession to the Treaty between the Emperor and the French King, it is stipulated that the Dutchies of Parma and Placentia shall be given to the King of the two Sicilies, after his Imperial Majesty's Death; and that his Sicilian Majesty shall give up to the Great Duke of Tuscany the Places called Stati degli Presidii on the Coast of that Dutchy.

We hear from Constantinople, that the Dread of Thamas Kouli Kan's pouring in upon the Ottoman Dominions, and the wretched State of Affairs in Natolia, which the Turkish Ministry take great Pains to conceal from the People, are Motives that make them wish for a Peace; a thing which no Body opposes but the Grand Vizir and his Partizans, in hopes of making a successful Campaign.

The following is the Substance of the Articles of the Subsidy Treaty lately concluded between Great Britain and Denmark.

All the Treaties of Alliance, Friendship and Guaranty formerly made between the high Contractors, and also the Conventions concerning Trade, are renewed and confirm'd by this Treaty. His Danish Majesty engages himself to keep, during three Years, 5000 Foot and 1000 Horse in readiness for the Service of Great Britain, so that they may always be in a Condition to march within two Months after Notice given: But if Great Britain's immediate Defence be the Business in Hand, those Troops shall begin their March upon the first Summons they receive.

If his Danish Majesty should find himself obliged, at the same time to send Auxiliary Troops to any neighbouring Power or Powers, in Alliance with him, his Britannick Majesty in Consideration of the great Expences in keeping the Danish Troops, engages himself to pay Eighty Crowns for every Trooper, and thirty for each Foot Soldier, of which one half is to be paid after the making a Convention on that Head, and the other half as soon as the Troops enter into the Service of Great Britain.

His Britannick Majesty likewise engages to pay three Years successively the Sum of 250,000 Bank Crowns per Annum upon Condition that his Danish Majesty will be contented with 150,000 Crowns a Year, from the Day on which the said Troops enter into the Service and Pay of Great Britain.

LONDON, May 4. We hear that his Royal Highness the Duke of Cumberland will have 15000*l.* per Ann. settled on him by the Parliament; and to each of the Princesses 6000*l.* per Ann. for the Expences of their Households.

Yesterday the Right Hon. Sir Robert Walpole was so well recover'd as to be able to attend the Service of the House of Commons.

Yesterday the Rev. Mr. Whitefield preach'd to about 10,000 People, at Kennington-Common. This Day at Eleven he is to preach at Wapping-Chappel, for the Benefit of the Orphan House in Georgia; and at Kennington-Common again in the Evening.

May 5. Yesterday Morning the Rev. Mr. Whitefield preach'd at Wapping-Chappel, and collected 2*l.* for the Benefit of the Orphan-House in Georgia. In the Evening he preach'd at Kennington-Common to about 20,000 People, among whom were near forty Coaches, besides Chaises, and about one hundred on Horseback; and tho' there was so great a Multitude, an awful Silence was kept during the whole time of Singing, Prayers and Sermon. This Evening at Six he is to preach at the same Place again; Tomorrow Morning at Seven o'Clock in Moorfields; and in the Evening at Six o'Clock at Kennington-Common aforesaid.
